

The David Shepherd Wildlife Artist of the year competition 2008

Sarah and her father were shortlisted as finalists in the prestigious Wildlife Artist of the year competition run by the David Shepherd Wildlife Foundation.

Visit the Mall Galleries from Wed 25 - Sat 28 June (10am - 5pm daily, to 4pm on Saturday) to view the sensational winning entries of DSWF's first ever Wildlife Artist of the Year competition and stunning works by the 'Three Generations' - David Shepherd, his daughter Mandy and eldest grand-daughter Emily Lamb.

All shortlisted artwork is for sale through the website, including Sarah's entry of a Brown Bear entitled "Life Is For Living". 50% of the sale of all paintings will be donated by the artist to help save wildlife.
